

BAM Bash at Boca Raton Museum of Art, May 15

By Julie Kaminski

BAM, the Young Friends Auxiliary of the Boca Raton Museum of Art, is holding its Seventh Annual May BAM Bash on Thursday, May 15 in the Museum's Sculpture Garden. BAM members, other young professionals and art enthusiasts will enjoy a festive evening of live music, delicious food and cocktails.

This annual spring celebration, one of the most popular BAM events of the year, will feature cocktails by Potions in Motion and appetizers. Guests will dance under the stars to live music by rock and blues band RipTide (www.gettripped.org), one of South Florida's most danceable bands.

Guests will receive Oscar-style, red carpet treatment upon arrival complete with live video interviews and colorful commentary on their attire, courtesy of Lynn University School of Communications.

The May BAM Bash will take place from 7-10 p.m. on Thursday, May 15. Tickets are $20 for BAM members and $35 for all others and can be purchased online at www.bocamuseum.org/bam.

BAM, an auxiliary of the Boca Raton Museum of Art, is a volunteer support organization comprised of emerging and established professionals who represent a new generation of support for the Museum. BAM continuously promotes the importance of including culture and art, and the rewards of volunteerism, in the active lives of young professionals. Targeted age range: 30's to 50's. For more information on BAM, please call the BAM Hotline at 561.392.2500, ext. 216. or visit www.bocamuseum.org.
